

What to do...

Now that you're here.

Welcome to Rincon, PR. Banana Dang offers our customers a complimentary guide that provides insights into this unique and offbeat community. The following recommendations come from our staff and friends—not swayed by advertising. To make sure you have a memorable time in Rincon, don't wear a watch. Paradise knows no time!

Banana Dang Coffee is next to Lazy Parrot on 413

Where we eat breakfast

Enjoy a panoramic view of Rincon at the English Rose while you breakfast on the "Full Monty." Also visit the Tapas Bar at Casa Isleña Inn for brunch on weekends. Villa Cofresi's restaurant is also a breakfast staple.

787 823 1525 | Tapas Bar @ Casa Isleña
787 823 2450 | Villa Cofresi (on 115 past Econo)

Best place for a group meal

Shipwreck serves excellent wraps, pasta and fresh catch. We also love the family vibe at Villa Cofresi for big outings—try their famous "El Pirata," 7 kinds of rum served in a coconut...if you can handle it!

For an intimate meal (no ocean view)

We love Lazy Parrot Restaurant (LPR) for its charming atmosphere and Puerto Rican fare. If you have good shoes—venture poolside downstairs to Rum Shack for beer, pinchos + tacos. There's also miniature golf.

For an intimate meal (with ocean view)

Tapas Bar serves excellent fish and fresh salads in a romantic setting (right on the beach). Ode to the Elephants Thai restaurant also scores big points for its location—all we can say is GINGER MARTINI.

Best place(s) for Spunk. Funk and Drunk.

Go to Tamboo and Pool Bar—it's a scene! Tamboo brings it home with music + beer. Pool Bar dishes yummy sushi + surf flicks. Rock Bottom is fun too.

Best place to feel like J-Lo (or Marc Anthony)

Horned Dorset. Hillary Clinton dined here, but we're not sure about Shania Twain, 800 633 1857.

I scream (for ICE CREAM) at the beach

D'ssert scoops up homemade ice cream backed by sweet treats—a favorite is the chocolate lava cake. (at the balneario, across from the school)

Pizza Pizza...

The best kept secret is the pizza truck near Lazy Parrot (don't tell anyone)—order the chicken calzone and any pie. Also, our pal Kevin swears by the white spinach pizza at Pizzaland. Hot wings are a plus too.

I need COFFEE!

What can we say? Banana Dang coffee bar serves specialty coffee from Puerto Rico, smooth lattes, cappuccinos, and healthy banana smoothies. We source local and comply with strict freshness standards. WiFi/computers available + cool beats.

Yummy pinchos (like a kabob)

The food at Steps Quick Lunch at Steps Beach reminds us of home. The pinchos are delicioso and you can't beat the relaxed setting. They also rent snorkeling equipment.

Best vegetarian lunch

This is a missing market in Rincon; a Whole Foods or similar business model would succeed here. For alternatives—check out the organic food section at Edward's Food Mart, 787 823 7700.

Best air-conditioning...how to cool off

The best air conditioning system exists at the USPS—yes, United States Post Office in Rincon. You'll also freeze your ass at Villa Cofresi's indoor restaurant + we have cool temps at Banana Dang!

For late night bites

For burgers + fries, check out Rock Bottom—opens past midnight. The pizza truck near Lazy Parrot too.

Best place to meet the locals

Joe's Bar at Club Nautico by the Marina is a hangout. We also recommend El Nativo for their quesadillas. Or meet up at any of the panaderias (bakeries) and drink at Puesta Del Sol—located up the hill from Maria's beach. 787 823 4922 (El Nativo)
